fact, see more in his forbearance & kindly charity towards us & the Nations Enemies the noblest traits of his character. Surely there is Almighty power in God for God in Forbearance & long suffering. The Nation demonstrates it. That he was murdered while seeking to save his Murderers from the guilt of Rebellion & Civil War & seeking to do it, too, without compromising the Rights of the Negro or the Integrity of the Republic intensifies the Nations respect for him, & abhorrence of his enemies.

Please drop me a line - care of J. M. Friend - Gloucester, Mass. & tell me if you will be at Home Sunday the 7th of May &. on if not then, What day I can see you next week after Tuesday. I have much to say to you & want to say it before going to N. Y.

Is George with you? Will he be May 7th &

Yours & Wright.

Dear William.

I long to see you & hear
of your glorious reception in Rochester.

Will you be at Home Sunday
May 7th? If I can come to Boston Saturday the 6th of May.
Could I stop at your Home
that night & see you Sunday?
I go to Groveland to morrow to be there, in Haverhill & West Newbury.
on Sunday next & till Tuesday. Shall then go to Gloucester & make ready to go to New York. to Annual Meeting.

I thank God. Dear William that your voice has never been raised to create & intensify that spirit which has culminated in the assassination of President Lincoln. Even his deadliest
